I love Chris like a brother. There were SO many things we (Mike, Shelly, Chris and I) had planned to do. More shows, vacations, more time together. We were really going to do it all. Together.

I grieve selfishly for myself. But most of all I grieve for his family, shelly, and his dear friends.

We all love you and miss you so.

I am still in disbelief. If it weren't for Chris, I would have never met my husband. His memories will live on forever in the hearts and minds of many. Continued prayers to the Sullivan's, Shelly and her kids. Don't forget we are a phone call, text or message away. Don't hesitate if you need ANYTHING. Love you all and consider you all my family.

Thinking of you at this time. I worked with Chris at MDOT doing bridge inspection. He was a great person to work with and always willing to help others. Dave Andrews
