Your Hug Meant the World

Nobody else held me so tight
Or made me feel so right
No one's eye shined so bright with love
As my mom, who is now high above

“ When my grandma passed. She made sure I still had a grandma. Always welcomed me into her home like I was one of her own. Always helping anybody in need even when she didn't have the means to do so. Made my wife the stubborn wonderful woman she is. I can't imagine where my wife and I would be without her influence. Or where her great granddaughter Corinna would be without the short time of influence she had on her. I'm going to miss asking Andrea "what did your grandmother get her this time" on a semi regular basis. Can't say enough wonderful things about her. Thankful she had such a hand raising my wife and her siblings and teaching them right from wrong. And how to be independent thinkers. Along with also not being afraid to stand up for themselves and do what's right. Thank you for leaving behind a legacy with your children grandchildren and great grandchildren. You will truly be missed.

“ When I first met Jean, I didn't quite know how to take her. Full of spunk, and a character to match. She always had her self into something, family matters, work and of course John. I talked to her, not very long ago, and of course she had a great grandbaby with her. Jean you will be missed by many, but your legacy will continue on through family and friends whose lives you touched.
