“ He was a "tease" and always happy when I was growing up. I remember him running upstairs yelling "good night Pa and Ma". He was 9 1/2 years older than me.###imported-begin##Gerald & Eileen wood###imported-end##

“ I remember eating a meal at Uncle Arnie & Aunt Marion's house in 1998. It was such a fun experience and I was so happy for my children to meet my uncle and aunt, plus see the house that my mother grew up in. God Bless all of the House family. Love, Charleen###imported-begin##Charleen Wood Waters###imported-end##

“ Just a note to pass on from Mary & Hank Tait. They are in China visiting their daughter and son in law, Cassandra & Adam. They asked me to pass on to the family their condolence and wished they were in town to attend the funeral. They asked if I could somehow let Mrs. House know that they are thinking about her and praying for her, they would appreciate it. Prayers & hugs, Mary & Hank Tait###imported-begin##Truda Kruger###imported-end##

“ Eric and family I'm sorry at your loss. We had good times telling your dad the deer we saw and missed when we hunted his Farm together. When my ex and I would visit you at the trailer and your dad would stop over to see who came, great memories. Will keep you in my Prayers.###imported-begin###Ted A. “ Aunt Marion, My memories of my Uncle Arnie are that he was happy in the Lord, hardworking on the farm, and he loved his wife and family. In the ninety's when I came back and lived in the area for three and a half years, you all were so friendly and welcoming to my family. I remember Uncle Arnie taking my four boys out to the barn to show us his cows. I also remember that you both were happy to tell stories about not only your children, but the children you knew at church. After being away for so many of my growing up years, it was wonderful to discover what he was like.
