

Arthur Jerred

January 13, 1929 - July 25, 2018

Arthur L. Jerred, age 89 of Clare, passed away Wednesday, July 25, 2018 at the North Woods Nursing Center in Farwell. Arthur was born the son of Lydia Jerred on January 13, 1929 in Clare. He had served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. Arthur was united in marriage to Lois Darlene Davis on September 9, 1977 with her predeceasing him on May 16, 2003. Early in his career, Arthur worked as a machinist in Metro Detroit and then worked in auctions throughout Mid-Michigan after moving back to Clare. He was an avid outdoors man, hunting, fishing and antiquing and loved spending time with his family and many friends.

Arthur is survived by his son Darryl (Melanie) Jerred of Lake Orion; grandchildren Ava Jerred and Henry Jerred; stepchildren Jackie, Dana, Michelle and Quinn; 11 step grandchildren and many step great grandchildren. Arthur was predeceased by his mother and a stepdaughter Georgia.

Cremation has taken place with the arrangements handled by the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. On-line guestbook at www.stephenson-wyman.com

Tribute Wall

AW

“ Art always greeted me in the mornings with a smile and HEY!!! Some days it would catch me off guard and startle me but we would laugh it off. I will miss him and how he would share stories about hunting, fishing or even the rodeos. He was always entertaining to visit.

Aaron Woods - August 07, 2018 at 09:44 AM