“ To Ed, David, Jackie and Tom: I am sorry to read of your mothers passing. She was a wonder lady and will be missed by my. She was like my second mother because when your family was neighbors to us. She was always there for me if my mother was not available and I will never forget the times when she helped me out. She will be missed. May she Rest In Peace.

“ I had the pleasure of being Miss Barb's cook for the past few months. Every morning when asked what she would like she said "oh have ya got a crust of bread" she had the ability to make me smile every morning. That was Barb she was a hoot, and what a lovely Family she has. Miss you barb!
