

Basil M. "Mike" Weaver

December 22, 1955 - April 29, 2025

Basil "Michael" Weaver, age 69, of Farwell, passed away on Tuesday, April 29, at Woodland Hospice House in Mt. Pleasant. Mike was born the son of Basil J. and Jeanne (Henry) Weaver on Dec. 22, 1955, in Grand Rapids. His family moved to Farwell when Mike was in Elementary School. He had been a member of the NHS and was Salutatorian of the Farwell High School class of 1974. Mike married Brenda Strothers on Sept. 17, 2001, and she preceded him in death on Aug. 22, 2017. He had been a firefighter with Surrey Township Fire Department and had served for 20 years. He had also served as Surrey Township Supervisor for a couple terms. Mike had worked for a time as a material handler for Surrey Products until he bought and operated the Farwell NAPA Parts store. After selling the NAPA Store, he worked as a die setter and Union Steward at Evert Products / Ventra. He took great enjoyment in his 57 Chevy and his purple 73 Challenger.

Mike is survived by his mother, Jeanne, his two sons, Michael Weaver, Matthew (Angie) Weaver, Step-children, Melisa, Lisa, Mark, Crystal, and Jesse, his sisters and brother, Sue (Amos Brasington) Huntoon, Tony (Pam Worden) Weaver, and Carista (Greg) Weaver-Ross, four grandchildren, Tucker, Austin, Aiden, and Mason, as well as seven step grandchildren six Great-grandchildren. Mike was preceded in death by his father Basil, his wife Brenda, his sister Monica, a sister-in-law Lynette, a brother-in-law Fred Huntoon and stepson Larry.

Mike will be laid to rest with Brenda in Surrey Twp. Cemetery, in a private ceremony. Arrangements were made with the Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Homes of Clare and Farwell. You are invited to leave his family an online condolence message on Mike's tribute page at www.stephenson-wyman.com
