“ So sorry to hear about Betty. Our parents lived next door to her, Rich and Anna Miller. Always enjoyed our chats with her when she would stop over to visit. I'll never forget the hamburger I cooked for her over the campfire, “Best dang burger I ever had!”, she said. She was part of the local McDonald's Friends group with Anna. I hope Betty's family finds peace and God's loving embrace during this difficult time of mourning. God Bless Betty!

“ I remember first time I met Betty at her sister home of Marie she was with her sister Barbara, they were so full of like they had me laughing but again all the Hembree’s with their southern charm was never a dull moment. From me and Victor our thoughts and prayers are with you!
