

Betty Lou Vogel

May 27, 1932 - March 4, 2013

Betty Lou Vogel died at home March 4, 2013 after a valiant struggle with lung cancer.

Betty was born to Minnie (Watson) and Emmett Dart on May 27, 1932 in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. She was a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy. Betty wed Edward Vogel on April 29, 1950. They spent their entire married life in the Central Michigan area.

Betty enjoyed making a home for her family. She loved cooking, gardening and was exceptional at baking. No special occasion was complete without some of her delicious pies.

Family was very important to Betty and while she enjoyed raising her children, she took special delight in her grandchildren and felt particularly blessed when her great-grandchildren came along.

Betty is survived by her devoted husband Edward, her daughter Roxanne (Richard) Rowley of Manistee, Michigan; sons Paul (Erma) Vogel and Charles (Vicky Kitchen) Vogel of Coleman, Michigan; and her sons in Wasilla, Alaska, Pat (Robin) Vogel and Tim Vogel. She also leaves behind her grandchildren Rhonda (Adam) Greene, Ryan Rowley, Regina (Richard) Miller, Gavin (Marilyn) Vogel, Chuck Vogel, Adam Vogel, Michael (Bridget) Vogel, Christopher Vogel, and Aaron Vogel. She is also survived by her great-grandchildren Kable, Gage and Lane Miller; Tyler and Nick Vogel; Cole Vogel, Jaxon Vogel and Lily Vogel. In addition Betty is survived by her brother, John (Kim) Dart, many nieces and nephews and a special kitty, Maddie.

Along with her parents, Betty was preceded in death by her siblings, Joanne and Michael Dart and Delores Shepard, and a son, Michael Vogel.

Special thanks to the thoughtful and compassionate caregivers at Woodland Hospice. And thanks also to The Isabella County Commission on Aging.

Donations in memory of Betty Lou Vogel can be made to either of these worthy organizations.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, March 8, 2013 at 10 AM at the St. Cecilia Catholic Church in Clare with Fr. Bill Rutkowski officiating. Burial will follow at the St. Henry's Cemetery, Rosebush, Michigan. Friends may meet with the family at the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home on Thursday, Mar. 7 from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 PM. An online tribute may be left at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ We are neighbors that live right next door , every once in awhile we would stop over to see how our neighbors were doing . Betty would always have alot to say about her family. If there was a holiday coming she would tell all the details of food she is fixing and you could see the excitement of getting ready for the event . Or just her daily living of enjoying fixing meals for Ed . She will be missed by many.I also enjoyed garden season watching Ed bring in the fresh vegetables and how much Betty enjoyed filling up her freezer . Our thoughts are with Ed and the family , if there is anything we can do in the days ahead please don't hesitate . Love Greg and Judy and Tabitha Bissell

“ I married into the Vogel family and Dennis, I and the kids live in Battle Creek. But whenever we came to Mt. Pleasant to visit Tina it wasn't unusual for Aunt Betty and Uncle Eddie to come over for a visit. My kids adored her and would swarm around her, competing for attention when they were just little tykes! Aunt Betty touched me in a very special place in my heart not like many did and I know this world was truly blessed to have her.

My thoughts go out to the family.

“ I have some stories about Aunt Betty, but I will always remember her sense of humor, how she wrote out her recipes and our talks whenever we saw each other at the store. She loved talking about her family. She was one courageous lady!

I remember talking to her and Ed in the Whitehouse Restaurant. She was always smiling and ready to talk about her family. I heard some good stories about Alaska. Her pain is done and she now knows what comes next. My thoughts and prayers are with Ed and her family.
Sincerely,
Marlene Bennett
