“ Coslow Family,

I'm so very sorry for your loss. Death is truly an enemy we hate to face. At this difficult time we can find comfort in knowing that the bible tells us of a hope for the future. Revelation 21:4 says that "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." In addition to this, won't it truly be a sight to see once our loved once "rise up" as it's stated at Isaiah 26:19? We look forward to that day we will be able to hold our loved ones in our arms again. I pray that your family may find a measure of comfort by these bible passages. My condolences to you all.
