“ I'll always remember Carol's smile and infectious laugh. It was a real joy to work with her at St. Cecilia School. She loved her chocolate. I can still hear her saying, "would you like a piece?" I had some challenging days as a teacher but she always managed to get me to laugh. My condolences to her wonderful children and family. Marge Smith, Raleigh, NC

“ I will always remember Carol as a fun-loving member of our Traverse City Senior High School "Potluck Club". I am sure her family and friends will miss her lively presence, but am equally sure she enjoyed a boisterous reception from Pat, Bob, Jerry and Bev as she entered the Pearly gates! A life well-lived!
