

Carolyn J. LaRonde

October 14, 1937 - July 14, 2021

Carolyn Jane (Gaffney) LaRonde, age 83, passed away on Wednesday, July 14, 2021 from Cancer at the Country Care Assisted Living Home of Farwell. She was born the daughter of the late Frank and Daisy (Albertson) Gaffney in Sears, MI. on October 14, 1937, one of six siblings, two sisters and three brothers. She was a very wonderful woman and mother. Her belief in God was very strong her whole life. She would enlighten your day and was always happy to see you. Knowing she is now in God's hands and not in pain anymore is comforting. Carolyn loved to cook and bake; she enjoyed tending her garden and canning. She had worked as a bartender at the Eagle's Club for 17 years as well as working at the Log Cabin Bar for nearly 10 years. She had been the owner and operator of the Swap Shop for 14 years. She will be missed dearly by all.

Carolyn is survived by her two children Margie (Tom) Mackie, and Jack Fenton, her 5 grandchildren, her 2 great-grandchildren, and her brother Richard (Carol) Gaffney. Carolyn was preceded in death by her siblings Harvey Gaffney, Cecil Gaffney, Emma Pierce, and her daughter-in-law, Christine Fenton

Visitation and services will be held on Monday, July 19, 2021 at the Farwell Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. “ My dear friend for whom I cared for over 3 years. Stories shared of her past youth, later days, and days leading to her passing. What an amazing person, wife, mom, grandma, and aunt. God created us all and gave us many special talents. Carolyn had a caring and loving personality. She was a good listener. Like Monica said in previous post, Carolyn was truly an angel and her job on earth was done. When she entered Heaven, I am sure it was all she ever dreamed it would be and more. Finally meeting her Creator in whom she loved and prayed to daily. Remember what I asked of you my friend, keep watch over me. Your loving friend 🤔🙏

“ Through out life we are sent Angels to help guide us and Carolyn was truly one of mine. She gave me spiritual support during some very difficult times in my life. Working for her was a pleasure and I will miss her tremendously. Prayers for her family. My favorite memories are when she would have a picture colored for me when I would get to work because she was thinking of me when she did it and that would melt my heart. I will love her always.
