“ One of the funniest memories that I have with Cheryl is when she colored her hair and it turned out a Bright Red like Bozo the Clown. She called me up and asked for my help. So, I ran down to her house which was just up the road a little ways from me. When I got there, she was saying "Help me". We laughed so hard we were crying. I got it fixed for her. I have been friends with Cheryl for 30 years. My son was only 4 at the time and we met in church. My family and her family became long time friends. Cheryl was not only my best friend but my sister. You will forever be missed my dear friend. Leisa Carnahan and Family
