“ I was sorry to hear about Cheryl. I have not seen her since high school when we attended Adelpian Academy together. I remember her as a very friendly and happy person. My thoughts and prayers go to her family.

“ We have been through a lot of things for the past 60+ years. I still can't believe I will not talk to you till we meet again. I will miss all the laughs we had about thing we did when we were little kids. I miss you so much already. Rest in peace my sweet friend. I love you.

“ Many happy memories of my friend Cheryl. We enjoyed long phone chats, shopping, eating lunch together, visiting Wildwood Park, visiting each other's homes, going to a Mother's Tea at church, and so much more. She will be dearly missed by many. She kept cheerful during her many health problems through the years. I went to some medical appointments with her and even rode with her to take a windchime to her mother's grave and visit the little church there. She loved the pastor and wife there, and enjoyed many friends in many places. She is asleep now and waiting for Jesus to waken her when He comes to take His faithful to heaven. She always said to meet her at the north side of heaven. God bless you all.

“ Dear Cheryl: We have gotten each other through so much in our lives. You're gone, so suddenly, and it feels like a piece of my heart is gone, too. I cannot believe I will never hear your voice again- at least on this earthly plane. It hurts.

By chance (?) I came across these words today which gave me some comfort. it's called "The Legacy" :

*"When I die, give what is left of me to children,
If you need to cry, cry for your brothers and sisters walking beside you.*

Put your arms around anyone and give them what you need to give me.

I want to leave you with something, something better than words or sounds.

Look for me in the people I have known and loved. And if you cannot live without me, then let me live on in your eyes, your mind and your acts of kindness.

You can love me most by letting hands touch hands ,and letting go of children who need to be free.

Love does not die, people do.

So when all that is left of me is love... Give me away."

Goodbye, Cheryl. I love you.
