

Christopher Coleman

February 10, 1961 - April 24, 2020

Christopher Walker Coleman age 59 of Farwell (formerly of Bradenton, FL) passed away peacefully on April 24, 2020. Chris was born to Shirley Jeanne (Lemon) and Walker Thomas Coleman in Flint on February 10, 1961. Chris was a 1979 graduate of Farwell Area High School. Following graduation, he began his career in the oil fields in Michigan prior to relocating to Florida in the late 1980's. Chris retired from TECO Peoples Gas and owned Coleman and Sons Lawn Service. Chris had a passion for Mopar and restored a 1973 Challenger. He enjoyed spending time with his sons and attending car shows and drag races. Chris was a friend to many and could strike up a conversation with anyone.

Chris is survived by his wife Leanne (Hendershot), his sons Adam Coleman and Eric Coleman, both of Bradenton, FL and Mitchell Sterner of Farwell, his sister Kelly (Denny) Colosky of Farwell and lifelong friend Mike (Robin) White of Bradenton, FL. He was preceded in death by his parents Bill and Shirley Bazaire and Tommy Coleman.

In keeping with Chris' wishes cremation has occurred. A Celebration of Life is planned on Saturday, August 14, 2021 at 1:00PM at the home of Leanne Coleman located at 9620 Gravel Ridge Drive, Farwell, MI.

*Sadden my heart to see Chris's obituary in the Review today. I babysat him and Kelly along with their cousins back in the early 1970's. I always enjoyed spending time with them. I can remember all of us playing out in an old barn together. My condolences to the family.
