“Mary and family. I am so, so sorry to hear about Conrad's passing. He was my favorite at Punches, always smiling and always ready to help. I was just thinking about him the other day while I was trying to get rid of the overrun of Bamboo that he gave me years ago. One of the best of men and a sweetheart.

“Conrad was the kindest, caring man I ever knew. He had a world of common sense and practical knowledge that he was always willing to share with me and both of my boys too. He always had a lot of patience with me and he made my life and job at Punches so much more enjoyable. I loved our usual morning cup of coffee before we opened up for the day. I am so saddened to hear of his death. I wish I had been keeping in touch with him all these years. I also wish, Mary, that I could attend the funeral and see your boys again, but I am unable to. I just want you all to know that the world has lost a very very good man.
