

Daniel J. Ahac Sr.

April 19, 1940 - August 4, 2023

Daniel Ahac Sr, age 83, of Farwell, passed away August 4, 2023 at his daughter's home surrounded by his loved ones. Dan was born April 19, 1940 near Temple, Michigan and was raised the son of Joseph and Helen (Tomaski) Ahac. He enlisted in the Marine Corp from 1957 to 1961; anyone that knew Dan could tell just how proud he was as a Marine. Dan was a member of the Painters Union and worked for several years until he opened his own paint store and eventually went into a sandblasting/painting business named Maru. He worked until his retirement in 2005 for big gas companies (Great Lakes Gas and DTE) maintaining their gas lines against corrosion. Dan donated land to the Clare/Farwell American Legion so they could build their new building where it currently is. Over the years he had made a lot of donations to multiple charities far and wide.

Survivors include his daughter Kim (Barry) Bauer of Clare, his grandchildren, Laura Ahac (Jason) and Brad Bauer (Lindsey), six great grandchildren, Taylor, Melanie, Justice, Tessa, Kenzie, Maezie and one great-great grandchild, Madeline. Also surviving is his ex-wife and best friend, Marilyn Ahac. He was preceded in death by his son Danny Joe, a sister Rose, niece Susan Gladkowski.

It was Dan's wishes to not have a public event commemorating his passing. Cremation will occur and his family and friends will celebrate his life with a more private gathering. His family was assisted by the Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home.

“ I remember Dan from my younger days of hanging out with his son Dan Jr when I lived with my aunt and uncle on Willow Rd in Farwell. Dan Jr and I along with Shannon Denton hung out and use to do some stupid things as kids, like play war with BB Guns with BB's and Mr. Ahac would always lecture us why we shouldn't do this or that, after I accidentally shot Dan Jr in the forehead with the BB Gun. Use hang out in his shop at the top of the hill on Willow Rd with Dan Jr.

Also over the years stayed friends with his daughter Kim, and Marilyn, and Laura his grand daughter.

Got to talk to him when he was here at Medilodge for a short time. And we talked about the times on Willow Rd, glad I got to see him and talk with him before his passing.

Have some great memories of him from my younger days.

R.I.P Mr. Ahac
