“ *Dear Waynee Family,
I remember attending Auburn School with Daniel and his sisters, Becky, Debbie, and Naomi. He was quite a bit younger than me back then, but his mother, Mrs. Waynee was our 7th and 8th grade teacher, so we knew of her children, plus most families had lots of children and siblings would share members of the same family in more than one grade! My brother Rohn shared his grade with Debbie I think.*

I am saddened to learn that Dan has passed on at such a young age but will remember all of you in prayers, and I hope each will find comfort as you say good-bye and comfort this weekend...

“ Dear Debbie and Don,
So sorry for your loss. I will always have fond memories of "Danny" from Fisher School, a one room school house. If I was lucky he would give me a few pushes on the swing during recess. He was a wonderful first love for a kindergartener.

Best wishes,
