“ David was a very sweet man. Loved his family and spoke of them fondly. He loved sharing his memories of his work, and Hawaii, and the special moments he collected.
Prayers for all his family.

“ I remember David from his time at Medilodge, he was always very friendly and helpful. He was the Vice President of our resident council.

He would help other residents with their menus for the next days meals he would do this on a daily basis.

R.I.P David my friend
