“ I was glad to be able to meet Dennis, had fun with him for many years! He would always be there if you needed a hand doing something! He was a good person will be greatly missed ! Over the years I have learn one thing everything happens for a reason sometimes it does not make any sense. But unfortunately it is what it is. Over the past few years I know he had been hurting and pretty sick. He is no long feeling this anymore. He’s in a much much better place having a cigarette and mt dew ! It was. Please to know you!!
