

Donald W. Gagnon

October 3, 1933 - June 13, 2014

Donald W. Gagnon, age 80 of Clare and formerly of Lapeer, passed away surrounded by his family on Friday, June 13, at his home. He was born the son of John and Beatrice (Lamoureaux) Gagnon on Oct. 3, 1933 in Detroit. He married Elaine May and she survives him. Donald had served his country in the US Armed Services during the Korean War. He had been a career Firefighter in the City of Berkley, Michigan. Donald had also been a carpenter, a landlord, a restorer of antiques and an entrepreneur. He and Elaine had owned and operated D&E Antiques, and had been the former owner/operators of H&S Market in Lapeer, Michigan.

Survivors include; his wife, Elaine, his four daughters, Terrie (John) Gagnon-Kellett of Clare, Kimberley Gagnon-Brady of Clare, Penelope (Joseph) VanderVelder of Houghton Lake, Donna (Daniel) Engelman of Lapeer, 10 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and his brother, Lawrence of Warren. He was preceded in death by his sister, Dorothy and three brothers, Earl, Roland, and Albert.

A celebration of his life will be held on Saturday, June 28, at the Mayfield Twp. Hall, 1900 N. Saginaw Rd., Lapeer, Michigan, at 12:00 PM with a luncheon to follow. Final place of rest will be in the White Chapel Cemetery in Troy, Michigan. If you are unable to attend, you are invited to leave his family an online condolence message on the Gagnon families tribute wall at the website: www.stephenson-wyman.com
