“ Don was the first person we meet arriving on our new journey from Syracuse. Paul and I arrived in June of 1962 and have been friends with Don and Barbara. They talked regularly for the past few years, our health and age made it impossible to visit each other but friendship and love keep us together someway.Paul passed in September,2021, now Don, they will be back together again!My love and hope for happiness for Barbara and the girls are with you. God be with you and watch over you! Love ya all, Diane
