“ Dear loved ones of Aunt Donna,
Family memories go way back to that house in Rosebush. Because of course we are first cousins and spent so much time farming and socializing, all of my memories are jumbled together. Thanksgiving was always fun. Color T.V. before we even knew what that was about. Watching the Lions play on Thanksgiving goes a long way back. Aunt Donna was always so friendly. She seemed to always be hosting. Absolutely incredible memories of Coldwater Lake. Uncle Oscar insisted, cajoled me to ski way before I ever thought I could at the age of 12 with Linda helping. Aunt Donna was always kind to ask how things were going, and offer something to eat. Camping at the Lake was the max. Going to Ionia free fair with all of us, smelling that ham cooking on the old coleman stove. Uncle Oscar, and Aunt Donna wanted to get down early for the day. We'd meet up, spend the whole day down there, go to the show at night. That was so huge, because we honestly never went any further than Mt. Pleasant! Of course unless to pick up tractor parts. Talk about Red Necks.:). Lastly, she helped point the way, and so did Uncle Oscar to Jesus for me. Attended several Jesus Fests with them, music festivals all the way to Pennsylvania a couple of times. That music was on the edge for its time, and they loved to go, and drag a lot of us along. May God bless each of you in your memories, large and small. Dennis Prout
