

Doug Hoerauf

October 10, 1954 - May 15, 2016

Douglas E. Hoerauf, age 61, of Farwell joined his Savior, Jesus Christ in paradise on Sunday, May 15, at University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor, after a short battle with cancer. Doug was born the son of Erwin and Elvira (Knoerr) Hoerauf on Oct. 10, 1954 in Bay City. He married the former Jaynie Wallace on Nov 4, 1995 and she survives him. He had moved to Clare in 1983 from Houghton Lake and raised his children in Clare. Doug was an electrician by trade and had owned and operated D&R Electric. He was a member of the Zion Lutheran Church in Mt. Pleasant. As a loving husband, father, son, brother, and friend, Doug loved to cook, hunt and fish, spend time with his wife, children and grandchildren, as well as his friends from all over. Doug's faith and trust in the Lord always guided his life in the many directions that he was always willing to try.

He leaves to celebrate his memory, his wife Jaynie, children, Jodi R (Zachry) Kinney of Farmington, Mo., Julie R. (Shawn) Randall of Clare, and Jeremy (Ashley) Hoerauf of Howell, Michigan, his grandchildren, Tiffany, Zachariah, Ashley, Chase, and Graci (on the way!) Also surviving Doug are his father, Erwin Hoerauf of Bay City, his brother and sisters, Pamela (John) Whalen and Jean (Tim) Czowski all of Bay City, and Jon (Lynn) Hoerauf of Farwell. He was preceded in death by his mother and an infant sister Kathy.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, May 20, at 11 AM from the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home with Rev. Jonathon Bakker officiating. Friends may meet with the family at the funeral home on Thursday, from 4 to 7 PM. Memorials may be made to the Zion Lutheran Church. If you are unable to attend, you are invited to leave his family an online condolence message in Doug's Tribute Page at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ Jaynie and family, I was so sorry to hear of Doug's illness and quick passing. I have been praying for you the past few weeks since I heard, and will continue to pray for you. He looks like SUCH a lovely man...you can see peace and joy in his eyes. I know you through Tammi, my sister, and Werner, and send you the most heartfelt condolences. Thankful that he is in heaven and I will get to know him one day in the future. Peace to you all in this very difficult time -

“ Dear Jaynie,

Bruce and I are both so sad to hear the news about Doug's illness and passing. We were so looking forward to spending time camping and cooking with you guys and tasting the skillful food craft of our two fine man chefs. I can't imagine your sorrow Jaynie, but please accept our heartfelt hugs, prayers, and wishes at this most sorrowful time. We are both so very glad we had the opportunity to know him and call him friend, and I trust that we will see you and continue that friendship in the months and years ahead.

Peace, grace, and love to you.

Jaynie,

I was so saddened and shocked to hear the sad news at our Circuit Pastors' Conference yesterday.

May the solid promise and hope of the resurrection sustain you now and always. I thank God for the faith given you and Doug that we all can rejoice and give thanks even in times of great loss and sorrow. God's richest blessings!

“ Dear Jodi, Julie and family, my Mom let me know today and I'm so sorry for the passing of your Dad. I remember fondly memories growing up over there. One of the first road names I memorized after my own because I was there so often. From the rabbits, Fair, camping at Wilson State Park, Herrick.... so many memories involving your family. I'm thankful you were a great memory in my childhood and your Dad will be missed in our communitu. Love and prayers, Mindy (Kleinhardt) Mulheron

“ I've known Doug since he came to Clare and became a member of Prince of Peace Lutheran church. Great guy, but mainly he was a Christian and followed Jesus. What more can a statement say about a person. So sad for Jaynie as this couple exhibited great love for each other. They were best friends, shared hobbies and interests and just had a lot of fun together. They were a great example to family and friends on what a marriage should be. In last few years we weren't around Clare much, but kept in contact via Facebook. He'll be missed, but he's OK now. Jaynie and family... know that you'll miss him, but keep the memories.
God is great.
