“ Beth was our FLPP representative. I only knew her for a short time but within that time I felt a connection with her and I think she with me. Maybe she made everyone feel that way. If so, what a great tribute to her. Her passing has left me so sad, sadder than you'd think for someone I had not known for very long. I guess that proves how wonderful she was. What a tragedy to lose such an adventurous, sunny, funny, sweet, young person. My thoughts and prayers are with you, her family and friends, who had the gift of knowing her well.

“ As a parishioner of St. Cecilia Catholic Church, I would see Beth attend Mass with her Mother Cheryl, her Sister Alissa and her Grandmother Ruth, and the blessing of knowing and watching Beth grow into the beautiful young woman she became, will always remain in my heart. While growing up in a family of close, loving, responsible and hard working women, Beth learned from her Mother and Grandmother to treasure those qualities and use them in her adult life. As the years went by, I appreciated her good sense of humor, and the perpetual smile she wore. No day will ever erase her from our memory.

“ Beth was our property manager with Premier Properties and we worked with her for several years before we finally met her this year. She was always so sharp and competent and helpful - we LOVED working with her. When we finally met each other in person this past Spring, we gave each other a big hug. I feel so sad and miss her. I can only imagine what her dear friends and family are going through. She spoke lovingly of you all back in Michigan and a niece's wedding coming up (or had already happened?) that she was excited about. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. May you find some comfort in her loving and happy life.

“ Oh my Baby Elizabeth gone so soon with so much life to live. She a happy soul and loved to be around people. So helpful and so happy no matter what. She was such a big help to her Grandma Freddy at Grandpa funeral and to all of us just with the smile she always had to give. I was there for her first breath in life and we always shared something very special. I will miss you

“ Beth was one of the most pleasant people to work with. She always had a huge smile and just seemed to love life. At the end of the day I enjoyed just sitting down with her and talking...she had a way of making the day seem better. My prayers are with her family and friends as their hearts must be broken. I remember tanning with her in her back yard and doing hair and makeup upstairs in her room. She had the best perfumes and lotions and hair stuff lol. She always thought of others and rarely her self. I was only close to her for a small amount of time. Due to moving, marriage ect we grew apart but I will never forget her. I permed my hair for the first time after getting close with her bc I was jealous of hers lol.....
