

Eloise Ann Gibis

July 9, 1944 - November 10, 2015

Eloise Ann Gibis, age 71, lifelong resident of Clare, passed away at home surrounded by her loving family on Tuesday, November 10, 2015. Eloise was born the daughter of Joseph Raymond and Lana Ann (Battles) Gibis on July 9, 1944 in Clare. Eloise had worked at Ferro Manufacturing; she had served at one time as the Chaplain for the Clare Moose Lodge and belonged to the Clare Eagles Auxiliary. She was a member of Our Lady of Hope Parish - St. Cecilia Site.

Eloise is survived by her siblings William (Christine) Gibis of Grand Blanc, James (Wilma) Gibis of Clare and Betty Johnson of Mt. Peasant; a special niece Kathy Grubb, and numerous other family. Eloise was predeceased by her sister Leona VanSickle and her parents.

A Memorial Mass will be held on Tuesday, November 17, 2015 at 11:00 A.M. at Our Lady of Hope Parish - St. Cecilia Site with Rev. Prentice A. Tipon, Jr. officiating. Arrangements were handled by the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. On-line guestbook at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ I knew her from the Clare Moose Lodge. She was a very friendly, helpful young lady. We enjoyed our visits at the Moose with her brother and his wife. R.I.P. Eloise.

“ Eloise and I had a lot of great times together, rollerblading, ice skating, and laughing when we fell down. She had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone.
May God bless the family and comfort them knowing she is in a better place.
