“ Emma, I loved sitting with you at church before worship service would start and I have certainly missed your smile. You are now worshipping with our Savior.

Until we sit and meet again to worship together.....Love Rechelle

“ Mom, you are missed here but you are where you longed to be since you lost so many of your loved ones. Such a homecoming celebration you are experiencing with your Savior and friend, Jesus! I am kind of jealous as I miss them all as well. You are missed here but blessed to be where you are!

“ My sweet Aunt Emma, lots of good memories with her over the years especially the past 20 or so, She came to Charlie and I's wedding and loved to ride the motorcycles. Whenever she came to visit us down state Charlie would take her for a ride over the Langley Covered Bridge. We loved to fry fish for her and my mom, she was so good to my mother, Dolores. She came down and spent time with her and help keep my mom's apartment clean. Those two would put their heads together and giggle like high school girls. It was so nice to see them together. Memories we will treasure in our hearts forever.

My Aunt Emma when I was a kid always had Vernors for me- we were Air Force nomads so coming home to Michigan every year was a treat and she made sure we ate well. Her and I exchanged letters and cards since I was little- she always called me "Lil Jo" then. I will miss her terrible and will carry the love of her in my heart forever. - Rest In Peace Aunt Emma- you are with Jesus now and your precious Max
