“ Your dear mother was so special to many people in the world. She was loving and strong in her beliefs. She and your father raised a wonderful family of whom I was lucky enough to be apart of for all these years. She will still watch over you all from heaven and her spirit will live on in all of you. My thoughts and prayers are with you all now and in the days to come...##imported-begin##Joanne Horton##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of you. My earliest memories of childhood Christmases are of alternating years between Auntie Esther and Uncle Harold's house and our own. Your house was always so festive and bright and Auntie greeted me with warm hugs and kisses after the cold ride. I have a wonderful photo of Mom and Auntie Esther dressed in fancy coats with real fur trim probably taken before Dad and Uncle Harold were drafted. They are standing in front of two very fancy cars and are young, lively and obviously enjoying themselves. It is one of my favorite pictures. I will find it and send it on. Although there will always be an empty spot in your heart, know that she is always with you in big and small ways. I have no doubt that her and mom are up in heaven getting reacquainted, laughing, lively and maybe even driving fancy cars and wearing fur trimmed coats. Love, Lori##imported-begin##Lori Dey##imported-end##

“ Brenda, Joe and Notters, I just heard that your Mom passed away in December. My condolences to you all. It is so hard to lose a parent. They were such good neighbors to my Grandma and Grandpa Seiter. Take solice in the fond memories. Bless you.###imported-begin##Kathy Owens Evans###imported-end##

“ Some of my fondest childhood memories are all the birthday parties we shared with Uncle Harold and Auntie Esther and all my cousins. We were fortunate to have such wonderful families. I have vivid memories of your old house on State St, the piano in your dining room, and the big swing in the driveway. Auntie Esther always had a big, gentle smile, and I loved listening to her slightly German accent. I will remember her and all of you in this difficult time, and join with you in celebrating her life.##imported-begin##Richard Dey##imported-end##
