“ The other day right around the time Denny passed I was by his old KW place and thought of him fondly and wondered how he was. I want to believe that in this way we had connected and he was saying goodbye to me. Denny did everything with love and care, and his cooking was the best. Goodbye old friend.##imported-begin##Donna Hulme##imported-end##

“ Uncle Denny was such a kind, fun, invested and faithful uncle. He had a great passion for life. He was a friend, a brother and a dad to us kids. I believe he loved his family enough to relocate and reinvent his means of making a living to be closer to his loved ones and to keep closer tabs on some of us. He was such an encourager during tough times. He dreamed big and was not afraid to work hard when he was lead to a new path. He took time for the friends that were lucky enough to know him. We will miss his phone calls, especially when he was filled with excitement of an antique deal or a new idea. My kids loved when he would have Nessie talk to us on the phone. His love will remain in our hearts and his example will be ours to attempt to live by.##imported-begin##Cathy Manderbach##imported-end##

“ We were very shocked and saddened upon hearing that Denny had been admitted to a hospital and then later to hear he had passed. My husband and I got to know Denny through the antique business. He was such a good guy and he will be missed by the community. So sorry for your loss. Jane and Doug Kott###imported-begin###Jane & Doug Kott###imported-end##

“ I just wanted to say what a wonderful man Denny was. I worked with him through the Ludington Daily News for all his classified ads. I also stopped by the Antique shop and chatted. He had such a thirst for life and loved talking to people. He will be sadly missed.###imported-begin###Elaine Busch###imported-end##
