

Fred Caldwell

October 15, 1922 - December 11, 2019

Fred Caldwell, a World War II veteran, passed away on Dec. 11, 2019. Fred was born in Manton, Michigan and he lived and worked in Flint. Later he resided in Farwell with his wife, Fern (Carpenter) Caldwell who he married at the age of 19, and their love lasted over 77 years. Fern died Dec. 23, 2018 at the age of 94.

Fred was an exceptional husband, father, brother and Papa. He is survived by his children, grandchildren, and seven great-granddaughters. Fred was surrounded with loving, caring family and friends.

He stayed active during his life golfing, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling, and many water sports. Fred and Fern loved being at Littlefield Lake. Fred had a garden and shared the vegetables with his neighbors. At 97 he started to like tomatoes.

They will be missed. Thank you to Pioneer Golden Estates of Clare and MidMichigan Homecare and Hospice.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ My dad, who only finished 8th grade, made sure we all knew the importance of education. My mom went to work when I was 12, to pay for college for my brother and myself. How very proud they were of the grad children with college degrees and now great-grand children graduating from college. Thanks mom and dad for so many things. They were terrific role models. Sue Asp

Susan Asp - December 19, 2019 at 05:14 PM

KE

Your dad and my father in law Kenneth Eagly worked together in the Elms trailer park in Flint

Kris eagly - December 20, 2019 at 05:13 PM

WC

To the Family of Fred Caldwell Sorry for your loss .

William Caldwell (brother) Bondurant, Wyoming

William Caldwell - December 21, 2019 at 11:06 PM