

Frieda L. Jennings

December 17, 1925 - March 1, 2017

Frieda L. Jennings, age 91, passed away Wednesday, March 1, 2017 with her family at her side in Clare, MI. A long time resident of Fort Worth, Texas she and her daughter, Rebecca, recently relocated to Michigan to be with her "Northern" family. Born December 17, 1925 in Chauncey, WV to OB and Bessie Stewart (Runyon), she attended Omar primary schools, Maryland College for Women and graduated from Marshal University. She married Malon "Lucas" Jennings on January 5, 1948. She was a teacher in public and private schools with a special interest in helping the developmentally disabled. Her enthusiasm and dedication to providing educational and social opportunities for special needs individuals was her most personally gratifying achievement. She also enjoyed her ladies golf group at Ridglea Country Club, acknowledging her social expertise exceeded her golf skills.

Predeceased by her husband Mal, she is survived by her son, Dr. Martin (Diane), daughter Rebecca, grandson Bryan (Teresa) of Fort Worth, TX, Adam (Jessie) of Hudsonville, MI, Jaime (Jason) Hatmaker of Davisburg, MI, and great-grandchildren Nicholas, Cheyenne, Maxon, Mylan, and Elle. Special thanks to cousin Lou Fithiam for her friendship and support, the nurses of Hospice of MidMichigan, and the many home health aids in Ft. Worth and Clare who allowed her to remain at home. Burial will be at Maher, W.V. Arrangements by the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman. On-line guestbook at www.stephenson-wyman.com
