

Gerald "Jerry" R. Richardson

March 2, 1946 - September 23, 2015

Gerald Roger "Jerry" Richardson passed from his earthly life in the early morning hours of September 23, 2015. He is survived by his loving wife Sharon Anne, his children Kris (Tom) Card, and Scott (Jenna) Richardson. Jerry also leaves behind three precious grandchildren, Katie Card, and Lukas and Kaci Richardson. His unexpected passing was the result of a heart attack. Jerry's life was characterized by laughter and joy. His brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews, and many friends at Brown Corners Church will join to celebrate the fullness of life they have enjoyed with him. He will be remembered for loving through jokes and pranks, as well as his love for hunting, fishing, golfing and the great outdoors. Above all of these, however, Jerry loved Jesus Christ and there is much rejoicing in heaven today as Jerry has come home.

Visitation and services for Jerry will be held at the Brown Corners Church. Visitation will be on Sunday, September 27 from 5 to 8 P.M., with services led by Pastor Jeremiah Ketchum to take place on Monday at 11 A.M.. Memorial contributions may be made to the Brown Corners Church Building Fund, or to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements were handled by the Clare Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home. “ Jerry will be missed by everyone. He was such a joy to be around. We'll miss him as part of the group that stopped by periodically to visit, and to have a "treat" or a drink of water. May God grant peace and comfort to the family.

“ I have known Jerry for a little over a year. Who knew I would meet such wonderful people at Brown Corners Church. His friendship met a lot to me and enjoyed his special sense of humor, his friendly discussions with Jim Curth; Michigan vs. MSU. And the hugs that always came at the right time when I needed one the most. I will miss him so much.

“ *Very sorry to hear about Jerry. Our hearts go out to you all knowing how much he will be missed by his family, church family and friends. His light will surely shine on and we can only imagine how bright the Light will be Jerry experiencing today! Glad I ran into the two of you eating your ice cream at Surrey Point!
Scott, we are all so sorry about the loss of your dad. Take care of mom!*

“ During the Love Inc. yard sale, Jerry was taking a well deserved break. on one of the donated couches. when we were approached by a beautiful little girl. She carried a stuffed animal, almost as big as she was, and wanted to know how much it cost. Jerry told her that it wasn't for sale because it already belonged to a sweet little girl. It took a little while for her to figure him out, but she left with a big smile and a very big stuffed animal. He might have been a jokester, but he was also a wonderful "softie"

“ So sorry for your loss, Sharon. But it is comforting to know that the God who takes away is the God who re-unites! What ecstasy of love for those who went before him and watched his growth as a man, husband, father and follower of Jesus to be with him again and celebrate his victory over the world! And comforting to know that he is a repository of love waiting for those of us who miss his tender-hearted devotion and kindness!

“ Jerry will be missed dearly. I will miss running into him at the store and at church. Always seeing his smiling face and joking around with him will be surely missed. However, I cannot wait to continue it in Heaven with him. The Lord has received a wonderful man up there.

“ Dear Sharon and family,
I am so sorry to hear of Jerry's passing. My heart goes out to you and your family as you go through this difficult time. With Jerry around, you were never a stranger long, he always made you feel welcome. (Than, you had to wonder what joke or trick he was going to pull next.) He was a great guy and will surely be missed. I am sorry for your loss.
Love, Connie
