“ I met Harry a short time ago when I was working for the riverboat!! He was the sweetest man, always ready with a story, hug and of course a doughnut!! He was a true, honest man, which isn't something you find too much of these days! I was so fortunate to meet him and proud to say I knew him.

“ My fondest memories of Harry was the canoe trips on the Pine River, the Horseshoe contests at the annual pig roast and his general good nature when ever you were around him. Harry maintained a very productive life and was a good mentor for all the children that had the opportunity to be near him. My condolences to the family and friends.
