“ Harvey was a true friend and very much like a father to me. He was my Big Brother when I was in high school. We stayed friends for many years after that. He was such a great friend.

Fortunately, I had the privilege of seeing him one last time early last year while in Indiana for my own dad's funeral. I was able to let Harvey know what his friendship had truly meant to me. I hope I can continue to pass on some of the things he taught me for the rest of my life. Thank you, Harvey, from the bottom of my heart. Enjoy your peace. You've earned it.

I have to take a moment to apologize. I posted my previous comments in error. I know a Harvey J. Miller but from Indiana. He is in poor health also. When I did a search on Google, this obituary came up. I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ My big Brother ❤️ is a hero in my eyes. He would carry me on his shoulders and walk 3 miles, to get me a root beer, he went into the USAF when I was 3, but always kept me in his heart. He sent me, my first Bible and told me it was the best book I would ever read. He was an amazing person, Soldier, Son, Brother, Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather and Great Great Grandfather and a genuine Devine Son of God. He had a life with Dottie and his family that most could only pray for. He was blessed and he knew it and he shined that light wherever he went. God Speed my Brother, I will see you again with open arms until then, please shine your warm light upon me to guide my heart with your kindness.

Thoughts and prayers to all of the family. My heart broke when I read of his passing. Harvey was one of my favorite customers when I worked at the Trading Post. Always a smile followed by a joke and a helping hand if you ever needed one. Our loss is God's gain. He will be truly missed by all who knew him. Rest In Peace and smile down on me once in a while.

Harvey was on the short list of the truly wonderful men I was lucky enough to know in my lifetime. He will be sadly missed for a long time to come by those of us left behind, but just think of the joyous reunion he must be having with his beautiful Dotty !!
