“ Uncle Lee was always there for his sisters, Joyce, Patricia and Kate. When ever they asked him to do something for him, he always made sure it got done. I remember when he helped my brothers put a roof on our parents house in St Helen. He was always made us feel welcome and happy when we would visit him or when he came to family functions. Thank-you Aunt Joanie for taking such wonderful care of him during his illness. He will be missed.
