“ I miss you, mom. We used to have such fun staying up almost all night, just you and I, playing games when I was a kid. I remember all of the little handwritten slips of paper (some stained after so many uses) with a game name written on each, in the old paper bag (also stained). Sometimes we would make ourselves play whatever game we pulled out of the bag and sometimes we would just look at each other and say "nah!". There must have been a hundred or more games we had and played. At times, we were so tired that we would just laugh and laugh, until we had tears from our eyes and our bellies hurt, it was such fun! It is one of my fondest memories of our times together. Love you!

P.S. The green candle is in memory of your favorite color: Kelly Green!

“ Although I haven't seen or spoken with India for well over thirty years, I remember her best from her youth ~ when she was a new bride and a new mother. She always kept herself immaculately groomed and although she was shy , she was also extremely well poised for such a young woman. She was a most welcome addition to the Shear family and I'm sorry to hear of her passing.
