

Jack M. Styers

November 27, 1929 - April 9, 2019

Jack M. Styers, age 89 of Farwell, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 9, 2019 at the MediLodge Nursing Home of Clare. On November 27, 1929, Jack was born the first child of Lawrence and Minnie (Foster) Styers in Kings Mountain, N.C. He was united in marriage to Constance Williams on August 16, 1952 and the couple enjoyed sixty-six wonderful years of marriage together. Jack was a proud veteran of the U.S. Army, having served during the Korean War and was lucky enough to have met Constance during his service time while stationed in Great Britain. Soon after their marriage in 1952, Jack and Constance moved to the Detroit area and Jack began a thirty-year career as a plant transporter for the Ford Motor Company. Upon Jack's retirement from Ford, the couple decided to retire permanently in the Clare/Farwell area. Here, Jack was able to fulfill his passions for golf and nature conservation. He was a beautifully unique man, who was a wonderful Husband, Father and Protector of God's creatures. He will be missed.

Jack is survived by his loving wife Constance of Farwell and his two children Steven (Debra) Styers of Omaha, NE. and Carol (Russ) Cameron of Grosse Ile, MI. Other survivors include his three grandchildren Nick (Allison) Cameron of Ann Arbor, Colleen (Adam Ingraham) Cameron of Allendale, and Cassie (Ross) Von Minden of Denver, CO., his two great-grandchildren Cece and Jack, and his several nieces and nephews. Jack was preceded in death by his parents Lawrence and Minnie Styers and his brothers Leroy, Billy, and Gene Styers.

In keeping with Jack's wishes, cremation has taken place. A private family memorial service will take place at his family property at a later date. Online condolences may be expressed on the Styers family page at www.stephenson-wyman.com
