“ My mother in law, Dolores Wright had several candles and a Novena from the Carmelite Nuns at St. Patricks convent in Parnell, Mi. by Cannonsburg (where my folks and Gayle are buried). My mother in law is a living SAINT in human skin. She is so very devoted to her God and her Catholicism. A prayer from a few Angles sure can't hurt...not that she couldn't get past St. Peter on her arrival in Heaven, with more help from down here, but it sure doesn't hurt. I am not Catholic. Mike and his family are. My son is baptized Catholic, however he doesn't follow the teachings of the Church. I wish he would. He, out of all of us needs help, and prayers. I love you all. Dianne

“ So many memories. Our parents were "something else", to say the least. I loved your mother and your daddy so much more than I can even explain. I really am sorry I missed her funeral. You have all our sympathy and love. Let us know if or when you need us for anything we can do to help. Please don't lose touch with your cousin Dianne & "Mikey" Wright. It's been a tough year for deaths of both close family members and good friends. I feel like death is all around me. I am just happy she didn't suffer. God knows how badly I will miss her. I am so sorry I didn't get to see Kathy. I wish they could've dropped by Grand Rapids before going home, but I realize the hours on the scary winter roads prohibited seeing anyone. I love each and every one of you. I know you know how lucky you were to have such great parents. I wonder if anybody got ahold of Barbie & Aunt Georgia. I have no telephone numbers for any of that group any more. I'm sure they were all in Florida....not for sure, but I guess they go there when the weather turns bad. I hope Aunt Georgia & Barbie are doing well. If anyone knows anything about what's up with them, would you please let me know? I love all of you. Dianne and Mike

Jackie was much loved by her friends and neighbors. Here at the Castle her nick name was half a cup. When she would go down to join the girls for coffee she would only have a half a cup. She was so full of life, especially when she was telling you a story. She sure loved her family and she loved the Lord. She had a great sense of humor and she loved to laugh. We miss her so much here already. She will forever be in our hearts. We love you Jackie!
