

James R. Fuller

December 10, 1942 - January 4, 2015

James R. Fuller, age 72, of Lake, Michigan (formerly of Garden City) passed away on Sunday, Jan. 4, at Northwoods Nursing Center in Farwell. He was born the son of Elmer and Marion (Douglas) Fuller on Dec. 10, 1942, in Ecorse, Michigan. James married Laura Nieminen and she survives him. He had served with the US Air Force during the Vietnam War and had retired from Ford Motor Company as a supervisor on April 1, 1992. Following his retirement He and Laura moved to Lake, where he presently resided. He was a member of the Lake Fraternal Order of Eagles, the American Legion in St. James City, Florida . A tinkerer at heart and always wanting to stay busy, he had enjoyed restoring and rebuilding things.

James is survived by his wife, Laura, his son, James Russell Fuller Jr. of Garden City, his step-daughter, Melinda (Levon) Garbooshian of Lake, his granddaughter, Sarah, and several nieces and nephews.

In keeping with his wishes, cremation will take place, and no services are scheduled at this time. Arrangements are through the Farwell Chapel of Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home.

“ I remember when I was in fourth grade Uncle Jim and I would go in the garage and I would help him clean his boat and get ready for Houghton Lake. I also watch him build the shelves in the garage I learn a lot from him
