“ I first met Brother Jim years ago while I was in college. I attended one of his Bible classes and appreciated the information he taught, and we became very close friends. Even though we did not have much correspondence through the years, my family did receive his last Christmas letter. Brother Jim seemed very happy about the book he had recently completed. My family had been praying for his ministry through the years. We were not aware that Brother Jim had been sick and are very saddened at his home going. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family members. Any information you could share about Jim would be appreciated as he will be missed. God bless.
