“ Big Jim-I never in my wildest dream would have thought that you would leave all of us soo soon! I miss you already buddy! You taught me a lot about cars, business and life. As Jeff said during your eulogy, you were a manager of men. You provided much needed guidance to me while I attended WMU. I changed my major from Psychology to Business because of one of your recommendations. When I graduated college in 1998, I took many of your lessons with me to Connecticut. I cried on my last day at Great Lakes, because we would no longer interact day-to-day. When your father was here, at the Cleveland Clinic, I can to check on him, but equally check on you. It's always good to see your friends, but I couldn't hold back my pain and anger regarding the way you left this earth. I'm angry with myself also! You've invited me to Clare many times, but I always came-up with an excuse not to go. I say excuse because in retrospect, life is short, and nothing is usually more important than the current opportunity. And the time that I took out of my life to visit Clare, is for a dear friends funeral! I'm soo sorry Jim! You told me once that you loved me, well I want you to know that I love you too! Jim, I just hope that I was at least as good of a friend as you were to me! Please forgive me for visiting Clare after your death. Until we meet again, take care Big Jim!!! Robert###imported-begin###Robert Yarber###imported-end###

“ Jim was the best friend anyone could have. He would listen to all my crazy stories about my wild life and he would give me criticism like no other. It had us both laughing all the time. I have had so many laughs with Jim. I am so sorry for his family's and friends loss. I hope he is pain free now. I used to cut his hair while I was in Beauty School and he never complained once! My best memories of Jim are just us kickin it at his house in Paw Paw he would ALWAYS grill out, we would have some beers and shoot the shit. I will see you soon friend. I miss you Jim and I love you!##imported-begin##Jane Hatcher##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to Jim's family and loved ones. He will be missed every day. May you find comfort knowing that our Heavenly Father promises to eliminate death and pain forever some day. He will certainly swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces.." (Isaiah 25:8) Better times are ahead for us all and we will see Jim again.##imported-begin##J. Giordano##imported-end##

“ To the Anderson Family, My deepest sympathies for your family at this time of sorrow in the loss of Jim. He was a customer and a friend and we are all mourning his loss. We knew he had pneumonia but didn't know how bad he was until we called his office Friday morning to see why he hadn't returned our calls & they said he had passed away at 5am. We are all still in shock. He liked joking around with us at work & always quick to get off the phone, rarely saying "good-bye", we all joked about it. He loved to grill-especially fajitas, we had many grilling conversations, along w/numerous others. He consoled me a lot through my parents deaths (March 09 & Nov 10), listened to me cry a lot... I hope you find some comfort in my words of love, care & concern for your family at this time. We really miss Jim, as many people do, he's one of a kind! Bet you are stirring the pot in heaven!!! My thoughts & prayers for your family. Wish I could have met you. Love, Joy###imported-begin###Joy Wiersma###imported-end###

“ "May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind always be at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, and rains fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand." Jim you will be missed. You have always been a great friend and I know that I will see you again someday.
