“ Today it has been exactly a month since you have been gone. I sit in your chair everyday, wishing that you would come walking through the door. I still can't believe that you are gone. Everything feels so empty without you around. Seeing you was the brightest part of every day, and I don't know what to do without you. I miss you more than words can describe. I am so glad that I got to spend 20 years of my life with such a sweet, loving, Grandma. Not a day goes by that you aren't on my mind. I hope that someday I will see you again. I love you so much, and always will. ❤️❤️

“ Words cannot express how much you meant to me. You were always there for me when I needed you, you always came when I called. I only ever wanted to make you proud of me and bring you happiness. I love you with all my heart and my life will forever be changed without you physically here. Till we are reunited, all my love Mom.

“ I've been here I don't know how many times within the last couple days just trying to put the way I'm feeling into words. But there isn't enough of them to explain the absolute heartbreak I am feeling knowing that I will never see that beautiful smile again, or hear your laugh, or your voice, or see you interact with Cecilia and Connor the way I know you loved to. I feel like a part of me is dying every day that you're not with us anymore. You're so much more than just a grandma to me, you're the glue that held everyone together, you're a friend, and a mentor, and the most kind and gentle hearted person I have ever known. To say I'm going to miss you doesn't even feel right to say because it's so much more than that. I lost a part of my heart that day, and it's never going to be the same without you. I love you more than you will ever know. I hope to see you again someday, beautiful angel 💕💕

“ Gram, You have taught me so much in my life. You were the guidance I ever so needed. You are the good in me. You always had a way of making everything better. You were the most selfless, caring, and the happiest person I've ever met. Words cannot describe the amount of pain our family is feeling. But thinking of you and your warm smile makes things bearable. I will always carry you and the memories we've all shared together in my heart. You are missed greatly, and deeply. I love you with my whole .

Love, Jess
