“ To all who loved and cared for Jan, a very loving and caring mother, grandmother and friend.

*Life like a mist, appears for just a day and disappears tomorrow
All that we do, can simply pass away, replaced by tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?*

Hear the promise God has made

*He will call, the dead will answer, they shall live at his command
For he will have a longing, for the work of his own hand.*

*So have faith and do not wonder, for our God will make a stand
And we shall live forever, as the work of his own hand.*

Friends of our God, though they may pass away, will never be forsaken

All those asleep, who in Gods memory stay, from death he will awaken,

Then we'll come to see, all that life can be. Paradise eternally.

*He will call, the dead will answer. They shall live at his command
For he will have a longing, for the work of his own hand.*

I just wanted to share with you the wonderful hope God has given us through the ransom sacrifice of his Son that we can be reunited with our loved ones through the resurrection promised to us. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. May God comfort you at this time of great sorrow.
