

Janice J. Jourdain

May 5, 1938 - May 13, 2025

Janice Jean Jourdain, age 87 of Clare, passed away Tuesday, May 13, 2025. Janice was born the daughter of Carl and Pearl (Phelps) McClintic on May 5, 1938 in Alma. She was united in marriage to John E. Jourdain on April 30, 1960 with him predeceasing her on February 9, 2019. Janice was a graduate of Alma High School. She had worked hand in hand with John running the family farm. Janice helped organize softball in Clare and played for the Johnston Elevator Team for many years, she was active in the construction of Clare's Stamina Stadium. She was actively involved with the Isabella County Fair and 4-H; as well as the neighborhood Pepper Club and enjoyed dancing with the Saturday Nighters or finding a good polka band and was always proud of her flower and vegetable gardens. Janice will be fondly remembered as being a renowned baker and avid cook, as well as being grandmother extraordinaire who loved her grandchildren and great grandchildren deeply. Janice is survived by her daughter Christine (Bill) Barker of Hartland; a daughter-in-law Lisa Jourdain of Clare; grandchildren Jessica (Coty Sowle) Jourdain, Katie (Mitch) Cote and Jordan Barker; step-grandchildren Elyse (Dustin) Thren, and Alana and Cole Keene; great grandchildren Owen Sowle, Beau Cote and Finn and Austyn Thren; sister-in-laws Joyce (Gene) Pety of Lake Isabella and Pauline McClintic and Vivian McClintic both of St. Louis. Janice was predeceased by her parents, her son Greg Jourdain, and siblings Carl (Betteann) McClintic, Leah (Forrest) Stone, Harold McClintic, Ruth (Bernie) Woodcock, Dale (Betty) McClintic, Joyce (Maynard) Giles, Jack (Bonnie) McClintic, Thelma (Larry) Sopel and Tom McClintic.
