“ My sincere condolences to Uncle Dick, Stevie, Kimmy, Kelley and families. I have such a heavy heart right now. I was so blessed with so many great memories growing up with all my Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles and cousins! Your pigs in a blanket were a staple at family Christmas and highly requested! Aunt Jeannie was a total sweetheart and one could not ignore the loving dynamic she and Uncle Dick shared. You created such a loving environment for your children, grandchildren and anyone that graced your presence. You & Uncle Dick were always so welcoming when I would just pop in and I cherish those visits. I will continue those visits for my Uncle Dick as well. Love and prayers to the entire Haynak family. R.I.P Aunt Jeannie!

“ I was blessed to grow up through the yard from the Haynaks and Dickie was my best friend. Whenever I saw her she made me feel right at home, and I wish I could go through the yard right now and get some bean soup or pigs in a blanket. The radio would be playing music and Dicky and I would run downstairs and shoot pool or make prank phone calls...
We sure had lots of fun in their backyard throwing the ball, playing tag, sledding or swimming in their pool.
So many good memories.
God Bless our Haynak family and keep them close during this time of grieving.
Praying with you all.
Now we gained our guardian angel.
