

Jeanne M. Drury

March 6, 1960 - September 25, 2025

Jeanne Marie Drury, age 65, of St. Louis, MI (formerly of Farwell), passed away on Thursday, September 25, 2025, at her home surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on March 6, 1960, in Saginaw, Michigan, to Francis and Jane (Allen) Kalahar. Jeanne married Thomas Drury on June 9, 1984, in Clare, and he survives her.

Jeanne had so much love for her family and friends. To know her was to love her. She lived with a fierce devotion to those she cherished, a faith in God that never wavered, and a strength that carried her through even the hardest of days.

For decades, Jeanne carried the invisible weight of cancer, only learning its name in the last six years. Even under that burden, she gave her family joy, laughter, and unforgettable memories. Her resilience and courage were matched only by her kindness and the way she poured herself into her loved ones.

Jeanne was a woman of warmth, honesty, and unwavering love. She was not only a mother but also a best friend, a guiding light, and a safe place for her children. To them, and to all who knew her, she leaves behind a legacy of compassion, strength, and faith.

Though her passing leaves a hole in the hearts of all who loved her, her spirit will forever live on. We take comfort in imagining her reunited with her beloved grandfather and father. We trust she now soars free, at peace, and watching over those she held most dear. Jeanne's love was a gift, and her memory will remain a blessing to us always.

Survivors include her husband, Thomas, her children, Christopher and Marla Drury of Alma, Ashley (Colin Church) Drury of Mt. Pleasant, her mother, Jane Kalahar, of Lake, her much-loved grandchildren, Evelyn and Annabelle Drury and Aidan Church, her siblings, Dave and Kim Kalahar, of Florida, Diane and Dave Schlafley, also of Florida, Deborah Flattery, of Clare, Daniel and Donna Kalahar, of Lake, and Bonnie and Brad Martin, also of Lake. She was preceded in death by her father, Frank, in 2006.

A gathering of friends and family to celebrate her life will be held on Thursday, October 2, from 2–5 pm at Community Church, 425 Heather Lane, Alma, MI 48801. Her family was assisted by Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Homes of Clare and Farwell. An online condolence register is available on Jeanne's Tribute Page at www.stephenson-wyman.com, for those unable to attend her celebration.

“ Jeanne was the best visitor when I went to Rite Aid where she worked. I went to school with her Tom... I did her mother in-laws hair for years... Jeanne was a beautiful woman and always had love and concerns for others that was visible in her beautiful eyes. They say eyes are the windows of the soul, I know how precious her soul is. May God touch all her family with His healing.

“ Ashley and the Drury Family,
Please know our loving thoughts are with you all. We only met Jeanne a couple of times, but she always had such a beautiful smile. It was easy to visit with her. Please keep some of your best memories of your times with her in your heart and mind and let them help you through these hard times.

“ I think we met in 3rd grade, around 1968. Jeanne moved in down the street in Toledo, and we became best friends. We had so much fun no matter what we did. I was devastated when she moved away a few years later. We kept in touch until she moved in 1979. She sent me 3 letters, but didn't include her new address. I still have the last letter she sent me. I've kept it for over 45 years. I found her again, when the internet came around. I looked up her last name and found both of her brothers, and we re-connected. We only saw each other a few times over all those years, but it didn't seem to matter. We would just pick up where we left off. It didn't make sense, but we had something very special. Jeanne was a very special person. She called me when she was at U of M a few weeks ago, and I went to see her. I'm so glad I did. We talked for a few hours and I left, hoping I might get to see her again. I'm sure gonna miss her.

“ I don't know how I'm going to do this without you, momma. You were my rock, my home, and my best friend. I will forever love you, and when the time comes, I will be running to you to hold you forever. I love you, mom. And will miss you every single moment or every single day until the end of my earthly days.
