

Jonathan P. Wixson

March 17, 1973 - October 1, 2022

Jonathan Patrick Wixson, age 49, of Lake, passed away on Saturday, October 1, 2022, at MyMichigan Medical Center in Midland. He was born the son of Ned and Eleanor (Zion) Wixson on March 17, 1973, in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. On August 5, 2006, Jon married Rebecca Reger, and together they enjoyed sixteen years of marriage. Jon was a proud graduate of the Farwell High School Class of 1993; he received his auto mechanic certificate from Mid Michigan Community College and has remained a Central Michigan resident his whole life. Throughout his working career, Jon was considered a “jack of all trades”, having worked briefly with Central Concrete and Evert Products, before finding the job he truly enjoyed—driving bus for Farwell Public Schools. Jon’s passions included riding horses and hunting with his wife Becky, at least for as long as he could manage to sit still. However, those that knew Jon best knew of his love for tractors and most things automotive—as long as they were Ford’s. There wasn’t much Jon couldn’t find a way to “MacGyver”, in fact, he did it so frequently his family has renamed it as “Wixson Fixin”.

Jon is survived by his wife Becky Wixson of Lake, his three children Hannah (Adam Gott) Reger of Farwell, Katelynn (Wayne Miller) Wixson of Farwell, and Kody Wixson of Houghton Lake, and his four grandchildren Adelina, Braiden, Kent, and Maddison. Other survivors include his parents Ned and Eleanor Wixson of Farwell, his siblings Ned “Jamie” (Trina) Wixson, Jr. of Wasilla, AK., Sheila (Nate) Kiefer of Wellston, MI., Ryan (Crista) Wixson of Clare, and Adam (Barbara) Wixson of Farwell, and many aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews. Jon was preceded in death by his granddaughter Isabelle Miller. A funeral service for Jon will take place at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, October 6, 2022 at the Clare Church of the Nazarene with Pastor Tim Fall officiating. Friends may visit with the Wixson family at the church on Wednesday the 5th from 4:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. and on Thursday from 1:00 P.M. to the time of service. Memorial contributions made in Jon's honor may be directed to his family. For those unable to attend services, online condolences may be shared at www.stephenson-wyman.com

“ So many great memories of Jon growing up as neighbors from riding/racing our horses through the property to church/community functions. Even with his physical setbacks he never let it stop him from being there for others or offering a helping hand. Jon had one of the biggest hearts I know and I consider it privilege to have known him. I look forward to seeing you again someday, friend. My prayers are ongoing for his sweet, loving family.

“ WE well recall when ,you were born John , & how that you came close ,to NOT making it then , & it has all ways seemed , that life was a real struggle health wise for you . WE also remember your kind spirit & how many times that YOU did a GREATJOB , of plowing US out many times . YES; WE will NEVER forget you , but WE know that God in HIS GREAT MERCY , said it is the LAST mile that YOU must travel John . Come home now MY SON , & find that LASTING rest , that YOU so deserved . In Christs Love .-----Bob & Reva Frick
