“ Aunt Juanita I will always remember you as a fashionable elegant lady who it seemed to have a different pair of glasses and shoes for every outfit. Your big blue glasses made you so unique. I know when you got to haven my grandma Betty Green was waiting to greet you and catch on so much. I picture you both up in haven sitting at a table watching the sun come up every morning drinking your coffee and enjoying the birds. You and Uncle Lene had what everyone spends their whole life searching for and i hope one day i can marry someone as great as you did. The Green family will never be the same with you Aunt Juanita. You will be missed dearly but I know you are in a much better place and looking down on everyone keeping us all safe.
