

Judith M. Field

April 27, 1940 - December 30, 2023

Into the loving arms of our Lord, rest easy. Judith M. (Fockler) Field, age 83 of the Windover Lake area, formerly of Howell, passed away Saturday, December 30, 2023 at home. She was born in rural Howell on April 27, 1940 to Donald and Thelma (Marr) Fockler. The oldest of four children along with siblings James, John and Julia; with Jim and John predeceasing her. Judy was a loving wife of Don Field whom she married December 7, 1957 after graduating from Howell High School; he predeceased her on January 10, 2012. Judith and Don traveled around the country and settled back in Howell to raise their four children, Anne (Dennis) Boersema, Pam (Jim) Mackie, Lacey (Randy) Baughman and Chris (Marianne) Field.

Judy was a lover of music and played piano. She loved to camp anywhere she could park her camper. Judy held every office of the Eastern Stars and was a member of the First Baptist Church. No matter if she was working in a factory, store, Wendy's, being a daycare provider or a Tupperware lady. She was Miss Judy and she loved everyone like her own. Mom is going to be missed by her sister Julia (Rod); 10 plus grandchildren and step grandchildren; 14 plus great grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, and friends.
