“ I remember when I stayed the night at Aunt Kandy's and Abby bought this set of hair straighteners. There was a big one and a little one. Abby let me keep the little one. I recently found it in an old shoe box of mine. I don't have that many memories of Aunt Kandy. Just mostly when i hung out over there. I miss her so much and would give anything in the owrld to have her back.

Love, Emmi <3

“ When kandy and I had a slumber party out in my mom's old station wagon and listened to Bon Jovi and crying because my brother Alex had moved out to Nevada. Come find out many years later that you 2 liked eachother... We laughed together, cried together, always had a ear open for eachother when needed no matter how much distance was between us. I missed out on our teen years, but I have wonderful memories of our younger years, and the last few years. We may not have seen much of eachother, but we rarely went a week without talking. Kandy was the greatest person I have ever known there will never be another you. You are unreplaceable and I'll never have a friend like you. Miss you so very much Kandy, and I hope you like the dimand cross I put with you on your casket.

“ I worked with Kandy at Horizon Senior Living, she was a hard worker for sure. I enjoyed working with her and then keeping in touch through Facebook after she left. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you struggle through this journey. So very sad.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Kandys passing. We went to middle school together and rode the same bus. I remember Kandy as outspoken, laughing often and tough as nails. Not sure what else to write it's been over 25 years. I simply wanted to say that her passing isn't overlooked. I was happy to know her.
