“ I met Kathy and Lee when they owned the Log Cabin store. Kathy was a very devoted wife to Lee when he battled cancer. She was a strong compassionate woman. My prayers are with her family and friends.

“ Kathy trained me when I started my first job as a nurse in Clare. I learned so much from her. She was so compassionate and went above and beyond for all of her patients. The thing I loved most about Kathy was her sense of humor. I absolutely loved working with her and was so happy to reconnect with her these past few years. Rest in Peace my friend!
